

The following discloses the information gathering and dissemination practices for Rep. Pete Stark's Homepage

In addition to the privacy policies in place by the House of Representatives (found at <http://www.house.gov/house/privacy.htm>

) I have enacted these additional privacy protections:

Information Automatically Logged

The House of Representatives uses Domain information (eg, house.gov, microsoft.com, etc.) to track the number of unique visitors to all websites, for informational purposes. This information is compiled and provided to each Congressional Office to understand the number and type of users who are visiting the site. As part of the House's privacy policy, no personally identifiable information is collected.

Registration Forms

Any information provided to Congressman Stark through this website will only be used to respond to your specific requests. If you request additional information, your name will be added to a list of people interested in that area and you may receive periodic updates about that specific issue. If legislation occurs in an area that you have written to Rep. Stark, you may receive follow up information on your correspondence. Your information is not provided to any other person, organization, or entity for any purposes.

External Links

This site contains links to other sites. Rep. Pete Stark's Homepage is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such Web sites.

Security

This site does not retain any information you provide to it. All information is forwarded to an internal e-mail address where information is entered into a database only accessible on site through members of Rep. Stark's staff.

Data Quality/Access

This site gives users the following options for changing and modifying information previously provided:

You can send mail to the following postal address:

239 Canon HOB

Washington, DC 20515

You can call the following telephone number: 202-225-5065

If you have any questions about this privacy statement, the practices of this site, or your dealings with this Web site, you can contact Pete's Office .